COLOMBIA CREST
GOLD CORP

Forward Looking Statement

This presentation of Colombia Crest Gold Corp. (the “Company”) may contain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Any statements contained herein that are not statements of historical fact may be considered to be forward-looking statements. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as “may”, “will”, “should”, “expect”, “plan”, “intend”, “anticipate”, “believe”, “estimate”, “predict”, “potential” or “continue”, or other comparable terminology indicating the existence of assumptions, risks and uncertainties which may cause the Company’s actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements made in this presentation.

Forward-looking statements in this presentation may include statements regarding the Company’s anticipated capital needs, its business plans and its expectations of results of future activities. While these forward-looking statements, and any assumptions upon which they are based, are made in good faith and reflect management’s current judgment regarding future events, actual results will likely vary, sometimes materially, from estimates, predictions, projections, assumptions or other future performance suggested herein. In particular, numerous risks inherent in exploring for minerals mean that our exploration activities may not result in commercially exploitable quantities of ore on our mineral properties. These cautionary remarks expressly qualify in their entirety all forward-looking statements attributable to the Company. All dollar figures are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise indicated.

Why Colombia?

- The oldest and most stable Democracy in South America; Colombia has never defaulted on a foreign loan or expropriated foreign assets
- Until 1937, Colombia was the largest gold producer in the Americas – pro-mining government –
- Ranked #7 in world by Behre Dolbear for mining investment: 500 years gold mining history - 40 years without modern exploration
- Tremendous increase in personal safety since 2002 (Uribe/Santos administrations)
- Rated #1 in Latin America for Investor Protection, 5th in the world (World Bank)
- US $9B infrastructure investment through 2012
- Strong trade relationships with US and Canada
